POLISH ORATORS ADVISE POLITICS

Declare Standing of Race Depends on Integrity.

CONVENTION HALL CROWDED

Matters Relating to Organization Consume Entire Afternoon Session—Congress Divided in Political and Economic Sections—Foundation May Be Advocated.

Politics played a leading part in the session of the National Polish Congress last night. In addresses in Polish the delegates were advised to mix in American political affairs for the good of the race.

Prof. Typryski, of Pittsburgh, urged the Poles to be shy of petty politics and to avoid petty politicians and dishonest methods. He declared the future standing of the race in the United States depends upon its political integrity.

Dr. W. Studnicki, of Infants, Poland, discussed the political affairs of the three Poles. He declared the weight of oppression is heaviest in Russian Poland, with German Poland a close second. The people of Austrian Poland, he said, are comparatively contented.

Crowded at Convention Hall. The convention hall was crowded during the sessions of the day, and especially last night. There were frequent displays of enthusiasm.

The first session was called to order by Temporary Chairman K. Synlewski at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Matters relating to organization consumed the entire afternoon meeting.

The congress was divided into three sections—political, educational, and economic—and each was ordered to hold separate sessions, halls having been provided at the Raleigh. The political section met last night. The educational and economic sections will be called to meetings to-day.

The congress elected Prof. Majerski, of Lemberg, Poland, and J. Typryski, of Pittsburgh, joint chairmen of the entire convention. Prof. Platkowski, of Chicago, was elected secretary of the congress.

Telegrams of congratulation and good wishes were read from Prof. Koder, of Cracow, Poland; Prof. Zaleski, of St. Petersburg, Russia; Prof. Dickstein, of Warsaw, Poland, and the professors of Lwow University, Lemberg, Poland.

May Advocate University. It is believed the educational section, which meets this morning, will advocate the foundation of a Polish university in the United States to perpetuate the traditions and language of the race. There is a well-founded movement started for the building of such an institution in the Middle West, probably at Chicago, to be under the domination of the Polish Alliance.

In the matter of politics the delegates are about equally divided between Democrats, Republicans, and Socialists, with perhaps a slight majority in favor of the Socialist party. The congress will make no declaration in regard to current issues in politics, devoting the time only to discussions of the questions of the day in a general manner.

It was the general opinion last night that the congress will not adjourn until Monday evening, or perhaps Tuesday. To-morrow morning more than 500 delegates will go to Mount Vernon to decorate the tomb of Washington with flowers. The pilgrimage will be an important feature of the programme of the congress, and several addresses will be made at the home of the Father of his Country.

LIEUT. HUMPHREYS RESIGNS.

Army Officer Trained by Wright in Military Aero Operating. First Lieut. Frederic E. Humphreys, Engineer Corps, U. S. A., has resigned, to take effect on August 1. Lieut. Humphreys was one of the officers who were trained by Wilbur Wright last fall in the art of operating the military aeroplane at College Park. He entered the army in 1906 upon his graduation from West Point. He was born in New Jersey and was appointed to the army from New York. He is twenty-seven years old.

HENRY P. GILBERT SENTENCED.

Executor Admits Appropriating $3,000 of Hill Estate. Henry P. Gilbert, former vice president of the defunct First Co-operative Building Association, and executor of the estate of George Hill, jr., of Georgetown, was sentenced yesterday by Justice Gould to serve one year and one day in the penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga.

Gilbert admitted that in his capacity as executor he had appropriated $3,000 which should have gone to one of the legatees under the will of Mr. Hill.

Mrs. Payne Buried. The body of Mrs. Sarah A. Payne, widow of Col. James G. Payne, was interred in Oak Hill Cemetery yesterday afternoon after funeral services at the family residence, 2112 Massachusetts avenue northwest. Rev. Roland Cotton Smith, rector of St. John's Protestant Episcopal Church, officiated.

Priest Reports Impostor. An effort was made yesterday to rob Father Feany, of St. Joseph's Parish, Second and C streets northeast, when a man presented himself at the parish house while Father Feany was out and said he had been sent by Father Feany to fix the lock on his desk. He was denied admission, and when the priest returned he said he knew nothing of the man.

GRADUATES GIVE CANTATA

Commencement Begun at Girls' National Training School.

Rev. William H. Wilder Will Preach Baccalaureate Sermon To-morrow—Tuesday Closing Day.

Thirty-five tidy juniors and seniors of the Lucy Webb Hayes National Training School for Missionaries and Deaconesses, at North Capitol and M streets, presented the cantata, "The Nazarene," in the chapel of Rust Hall last night. It was the opening night of commencement exercises, which are to continue for the next four days.

Gowned in the regulation commencement-day white, the girls presented an attractive picture, arranged in rows on the stage, with a canopy of evergreens overhead and the Stars and Stripes in the background.

To-night at 8 o'clock the class-day exercises will be held. Rev. William H. Wilder will preach the baccalaureate sermon to-morrow morning, and vespers with communion will constitute the evening services. The feature on Monday will be a hospital address by I. S. Stone, M. D., in the training school chapel. Kindergarten exercises and the domestic science exhibition are scheduled for Monday afternoon. Tuesday will be the closing commencement day, the programme being a meeting of national training school committees at 10 o'clock, and also the alumnae association meeting at the same time; the alumnae lunch at 1:30 p. m., and the graduating exercises at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening.

HARRY HOAGLAND BURIED.

Brother Employee and Newspaper Men Act as Pallbearers.

Harry W. Hoagland, a former newspaper man of the Capital, who died last Tuesday in Pittsburgh, was taken to his last resting place in Rock Creek Cemetery yesterday afternoon after funeral services at the home of his uncle, Joseph Bohm, 215 D street northwest.

At the time of his death Mr. Hoagland was in the employ of the Department of Justice, and brother employees acted as pallbearers with Washington newspaper men, who had been his life-long friends.

The pallbearers were Kendrick Scofield and Frederick Weimer, of the National Press Club; Stanley W. Finch, Wisely Brown, and A. Bruce Bielaski, of the Department of Justice, and George W. M. Peterson.

Rev. Samuel H. Woodrow conducted the services at the house. Mr. Hoagland died from double pneumonia while on a mission for the Department of Justice in Pittsburgh.

DOG WRECKS MOTORCYCLE.

Policeman Boyle in Mix-up While Riding in Twining City.

As a result of a mix-up with a dog while riding in Twining City yesterday, Policeman E. W. Boyle, of the Second precinct, estimates that he will have to spend at least $20 to repair the motorcycle on which he was riding.

Held on Forgery Charge.

Edgar B. Conover, eighteen years old, of 211 Sixth street southwest, was arrested yesterday on a charge of forgery. Angus Hill, of 1619 Corcoran street northwest, says he recently missed a check book and a letter which he had written to a bank in Virginia asking the cashier to balance his account and remit whatever was remaining to his credit. It is charged that Conover got the remittance, about $50.

Watch for a City at Randle Highlands.
